

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA LOS ANGELES STUDY INFORMATION SHEET 2014 Cooperative Institutional Research Program (CIRP) College Senior Survey

The Higher Education Research Institute (HERI) the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) is conducting a research study in partnership with your institution.

As a college student, you were selected as a possible participant in this study. Your participation in this research study is voluntary.

Why is this study being done?

This study is designed to determine what happens to students when they attend college. The data gathered are used in studies designed to better understand student learning and development and to help improve the quality of college education.

What will happen if I take part in this research study?

To participate in this study, please complete and submit the attached survey. Most respondents complete this questionnaire in about 25 minutes, although individual progress will vary by how quickly you move through the questions.

You may decide not to complete the survey for any reason at any time without consequence of any kind. The Higher Education Research Institute does not offer payment for participation. Your participation and responses to the questionnaire indicate your consent to participate in the study.

Are there any potential risks or discomforts that I can expect from this study?

There could be survey items that you are uncomfortable answering or to which you would simply prefer not to respond.

Are there any potential benefits if I participate?

You may have the opportunity to reflect on your academic experiences and your expectations for college as you complete the survey, which may enhance self-understanding. Your responses to the survey also will be directly beneficial to your college or university, and may benefit future generations of college students as well.

Will information about me and my participation be kept confidential?

Your responses will be used for research purposes only. The Higher Education Research Institute will hold your responses confidential, and before we provide your institution with your identified responses, we require certification from them that they will hold your responses confidential as well.

What are my rights if I take part in this study?

- You can choose whether or not you want to be in this study, and you may withdraw your consent and discontinue participation at any time.
- Whatever decision you make, there will be no penalty to you, and no loss of benefits to which you were otherwise entitled.
- You may refuse to answer any questions that you do not want to answer and still remain in the study.

Who can I contact if I have questions about this study?

- The research team:
