

DLE 2018 Infographic Codebook

An institutional environment that is proactive in creating spaces where students feel safe and free to pursue their education is imperative. More than ever college campuses in the United States are grappling with how to best do this in the midst of protests, uncivil discourse, and deep political divide. Balancing the needs of a wide spectrum of students is increasingly more complex. Understanding students' perceptions and experiences can begin to explain how to unpack this paradox.

Infographic Item	Survey Question/Variable Name	Response Option(s) selected
A little over half of students felt satisfied with their campus' ability to provide an atmosphere for difference.
51% Political Differences	Please rate your satisfaction with this college in each area: Atmosphere for political differences (CMPSAT06)	SATISFIED, VERY SATISFIED
59% Religious Differences	Please rate your satisfaction with this college in each area: Atmosphere for religious differences (CMPSAT07)	SATISFIED, VERY SATISFIED
59% Sexual Orientation	Please rate your satisfaction with this college in each area: Atmosphere for differences in sexual orientation (CMPSAT08)	SATISFIED, VERY SATISFIED
Students felt that faculty played an important role in the dialogue...
70% of students indicated that most of their professors turned controversial topics into meaningful discussions.	Please indicate how many of your instructors at this institution: Turn controversial topics into meaningful discussions (PROFESSOR05)	MOST BUT NOT ALL, ALL
79% of students indicated that most of their professors encouraged students to contribute different perspectives in class.	Please indicate how many of your instructors at this institution: Encourage students to contribute different perspectives in class (PROFESSOR 06)	MOST BUT NOT ALL, ALL
69% of students indicated that most of their professors taught students tolerance and respect for different beliefs	Please indicate how many of your instructors at this institution: Teach students tolerance and respect for different beliefs (PROFESSOR10)	MOST BUT NOT ALL, ALL
...and they were likely to discuss and be open to having their opinions challenged.
50% believed that tolerance for others with different beliefs is one of their major strengths	How would you rate yourself currently in the following areas: Tolerance of others with different beliefs (DIVRATE2)	MAJOR STRENGTH

DLE 2018 Infographic Codebook

An institutional environment that is proactive in creating spaces where students feel safe and free to pursue their education is imperative. More than ever college campuses in the United States are grappling with how to best do this in the midst of protests, uncivil discourse, and deep political divide. Balancing the needs of a wide spectrum of students is increasingly more complex. Understanding students' perceptions and experiences can begin to explain how to unpack this paradox.

38% agreed that openness to having their own views challenged is a major strength	How would you rate yourself currently in the following areas: Openness to having my own views challenged (DIVRATE3)	MAJOR STRENGTH
Although students are generally comfortable on campus, some have also reported feeling unsafe for a variety of reasons.
47% experienced verbal forms of bias/harassment/discrimination	Please indicate how often you have personally experienced the following forms of bias/ harassment/ discrimination at this college: Verbal Comments (HARTYPE01)	SELDOM, SOMETIMES, OFTEN, VERY OFTEN
21% experienced written forms of bias/ harassment/discrimination via email, text, or social media	Please indicate how often you have personally experienced the following forms of bias/ harassment/ discrimination at this college: Written Comments (e.g., emails, texts, social media) (HARTYPE02)	SELDOM, SOMETIMES, OFTEN, VERY OFTEN
28% experienced being excluded from gatherings and events as a form of bias/harassment/discrimination.	Please indicate how often you have personally experienced the following forms of bias/ harassment/ discrimination at this college: Exclusion (e.g., from gatherings, events) (HARTYPE03)	SELDOM, SOMETIMES, OFTEN, VERY OFTEN
18% experienced bias/harassment/discrimination in the form of offensive visual images	Please indicate how often you have personally experienced the following forms of bias/ harassment/ discrimination at this college: Offensive visual images or items (HARTYPE04)	SELDOM, SOMETIMES, OFTEN, VERY OFTEN
Students are somewhat satisfied with administrators' response to incidents on campus.
41% are satisfied with administrators' response to incidents of discrimination	Please rate your satisfaction with this college in each area: Administrative Response: Discrimination (CMPSAT12)	SATISFIED, VERY SATISFIED

DLE 2018 Infographic Codebook

An institutional environment that is proactive in creating spaces where students feel safe and free to pursue their education is imperative. More than ever college campuses in the United States are grappling with how to best do this in the midst of protests, uncivil discourse, and deep political divide. Balancing the needs of a wide spectrum of students is increasingly more complex. Understanding students’ perceptions and experiences can begin to explain how to unpack this paradox.

41% are satisfied with administrators’ response to incidents of sexual assaults	Please rate your satisfaction with this college in each area: Administrative Response: Sexual Assaults (CMPSAT13)	SATISFIED, VERY SATISFIED
57% are satisfied with administrators’ response to campus emergencies	Please rate your satisfaction with this college in each area: Campus Satisfaction: Administrative Response: Campus Emergencies (CMPSAT11)	SATISFIED, VERY SATISFIED

Survey Source: HERI DLE Survey 2018    www.heri.ucla.edu    f facebook.com/HERI.CIRP
 t@HERIUCLA

DLE 2018 Infographic Codebook

An institutional environment that is proactive in creating spaces where students feel safe and free to pursue their education is imperative. More than ever college campuses in the United States are grappling with how to best do this in the midst of protests, uncivil discourse, and deep political divide. Balancing the needs of a wide spectrum of students is increasingly more complex. Understanding students' perceptions and experiences can begin to explain how to unpack this paradox.